Pickleball Kinetics...to act or react; that is the question. Matt Lazarine will show you how to do both effortlessly and efficiently on the pickleball court.

Matt brings experience and diversity to the pickleball court during his lessons and clinics. Matt taught tennis for the past 10 years and has recently decided to make the transition to pickleball. A member of the United States Professional Tennis Association as well as the International Pickleball Teaching Professional Association, Matt will customize your lesson to fit your specific needs and goals. If you're a tennis player looking to try pickleball, Matt is the instructor to help you seamlessly transition.

As the full time Director of Pickleball at Austin Tennis & Pickleball Center, Matt utilizes video analysis to help develop and critique your game. A ball machine is available to rent on your own or use in a lesson environment.

A Certified Pickleball Teaching Professional, Matt has a knack for finding ways, both large and small, to help improve your game—tweaks to help you play more efficiently. He suggests drills that you can work on to continue that improvement on your own. His mild-mannered teaching style implements observation, suggestions, technique improvement and how to be a better partner on the court.

Matt is also a member of Team Paddletek with a supply of demo paddles on hand for your use. He will analyze your game and help you decide which paddle will work best with your style of play. Matt is not only a dedicated pickleball instructor, he is also a very successful player.

Matt Lazarine, Austin Tennis & Pickleball Center's Director of Pickleball, stands on one of the eight outdoor courts at the center. Matt is passionate about helping the greater Austin area embrace pickleball and improve their game. Matt offers lessons and clinics for all levels of play.

"I've learned so much working with Matt. He not only is able to help me with my fundamentals for pickleball, but he also helps me with strategy, which is amazing. Matt is a serious student of the game and has learned from some of the top players in the nation. I truly appreciate that he shares his wealth of knowledge with me when we work together. I feel very lucky that Matt has moved to Austin"
